Call for Papers and Proposals
62nd Annual National Conference

April 15 – 18, 2004
Palmer House Hilton, Chicago

General Program Co-Chairs:
Janet Box-Steffensmeier, Ohio State University
David Canon, University of Wisconsin

Proposal Deadline: October 10, 2003
Instructions for Submitting Proposals

Proposals are to be submitted on-line using the 2004 Participation Proposal Form available on our website: http://www.mwpsa.org.

Proposals should be submitted directly to the appropriate section heads of the 2004 Program Committee using the on-line form. Do not send the same proposal to more than two section heads, and please inform each section head if you have submitted your proposal to another section. Submitting a proposal to two section heads does not increase the chance of having the proposal accepted.

If you are offering to serve as a panel chair or discussant, please indicate your fields of expertise and provide a statement of your interests. Individuals may participate on no more than two panels and/or poster sessions. Participants may give one paper presentation and have one other panel role (as chair, discussant, co-author). Groups not affiliated with the MPSA that wish to sponsor panels should contact the MPSA Executive Director (wdmorgan@indiana.edu) to arrange this.

Papers may be presented in either a traditional format or in a poster session. Please indicate your preference for the presentation format on the 2004 Participation Proposal Form.

The 2004 meeting will take place over four days, in a Thursday morning through Sunday afternoon schedule of panels. By submitting a proposal, individuals agree to be available to participate in panels or poster sessions during any of the four days of the conference. Requests for specific days or times for participation are not accepted, except for reasons related to religious observance or unusual family circumstances.

The Midwest Political Science Association reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal received from an individual or individuals desiring to participate in the annual meeting.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS TO THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

The American Journal of Political Science (AJPS) seeks manuscripts that make outstanding contributions to scholarly knowledge about notable theoretical concerns, puzzles, or controversies in any subfield of political science. The AJPS prefers manuscripts that are in the range of 25-35 pages long, formatted as explained below. The AJPS will not review papers that are under consideration for publication elsewhere, whose contents have been substantially published before, or that exceed 45 pages formatted in accordance with the instructions below. Manuscripts that are at or near the maximum length will be subjected to special editorial review regarding whether their length is justified.

All the text, footnotes, bibliographic citations, and appendix materials in a manuscript must be double-spaced and printed in a standard 12-point type font. Tables may be single-spaced. Tables and figures should be printed at the end of the manuscript, each one on a separate page on standard 8.5 X 11 inch paper. Papers that are accepted for publication must be prepared by the author in accordance with our requirements for headings, bibliographic citations, tables, figures, and related matters. Instructions regarding these requirements are made available at the time papers are accepted.

Effective March 16, only electronic submissions as detailed below will be accepted at ajps@tamu.edu. The e-mail message itself should serve as the submission letter, and it should include a mailing address for the contact author. Attached to the e-mail should be PDF files. One of the PDF files should be a complete version of the paper. The cover page of this complete copy of the paper should include all the authors’ full names, institutional affiliations and the e-mail and postal addresses of the contact author. The second PDF file should contain an entirely anonymous version of the paper with no author-identifying information. Author-identifying information to be excluded from the anonymous file includes the cover page information on authors, notes of appreciation to others for data or comments on the paper, statements of where the paper may have been presented at a conference, citations to the author(s) prior scholarship unless they are essential to the literature review of the paper, and any other language that could identify the author(s). Neither PDF copy of the paper should contain author-identifying information in the “document summary” tab of the PDF file. Both should be printable files. An abstract of 150 words or less should be included in both copies of the paper. Authors who state that related text, information on the data, or additional analyses are available on request should include that material in a separate, anonymous PDF file. Papers that do not meet these guidelines will not be sent out for review. Only under exceptional circumstances will paper submissions be returned to authors.

Effective May 1, all electronic submissions must be made through our website at www.ajps.org. While we expect the submission requirements to be essentially the same as that detailed above, some details may change. Please consult the journal’s website at www.ajps.org for current submission requirements.

The AJPS does not process newly submitted manuscripts between August 1 and 31 or between December 20 and January 2. Generally, the AJPS follows the style guidelines of the American Political Science Association’s Style Manual for Political Science and The Chicago Manual of Style (14th edition) for issues not addressed in the former manual or these instructions. For more information on the journal and its policies see the web site of the Midwest Political Science Association at www.indiana.edu/~mpsa or the journal web site at www.ajps.org.
