Smartphone/Tablet App

Our new web-based app is available to those attendees who pre-registered for the conference and selected the option to use the app in lieu of a printed program. The app is designed to run on either a smartphone or tablet, and on different operating systems. The app will include the entire program as well as many additional features that are useful for social networking. The hotel will provide free Wi-Fi, though running on a cellular network will probably provide a better experience. For security reasons, each registered user may only load the app on one device (e.g. smartphone, tablet). You cannot switch or change devices once the app has been downloaded onto a device. Attendees who register on-site or who did not select the option for the app will not be able to access the app.

Your password is mpsa2014 plus your first and last initial. For example John Smith's password would be mpsa2014js. If you have questions or require assistance operating the app please see the Tech Desk near the State Ballroom on the 4th floor from Thursday – Saturday from 7:30 am – 9:30 am; or on Thursday and Friday from 9:30 am – 6:30 pm, and Saturday 9:30 am – 5:00 pm in the exhibit hall located in the State and Grand ballrooms on the 4th floor in the "Green Room" - booth 107 or at the MPSA booth 105.

Buses will continuously run between the Palmer House and the Chicago Hilton on: Thursday 7:00 am – 9:00 pm; Friday 7:30 am – 9:00 pm; Saturday 7:30 am – 9:00 pm; and on Sunday 7:30 am – 1:00 pm from the 8th Street South Exit at the Chicago Hilton and from the Wabash Exit at the Palmer House.

Onsite Conference Registration: Everyone participating in the conference must register. The conference registration center is on the 4th floor. MPSA members are eligible for the discounted conference registration fee. Registration is discounted if you stay at one of the conference hotels (Palmer House Hilton, Hilton Chicago, or Hostelling International Chicago) or if you live within a 50-mile radius of the host city. Conference registration and name badge are required for admittance to all MPSA events. For those who have not pre-registered, registration fees are as follows:

	In Hotel	Out Hotel

Graduate Student/Retiree Rate for Member:	$130	$150
Undergraduate Rate:	$40	$40
Nonmembers Professional Rate:	$307	$367
Nonmember Graduate Student/Retiree Rate:	$175	$195

*Professionals who are not political scientists may register at the professional member rate.

Audiovisual Information

All meeting rooms have an LCD projector (Dell 3100 MP or 3300 MP) and a NetBook computer. Ballrooms do not. The NetBook computers are operating with Windows XP. They are equipped with Open Office (a shareware version of MS Office), Adobe PDF Reader, PowerPoint Reader, Media Player, and antivirus software. You should come to the session with your presentation saved on a USB flash or thumb drive. Please use an inexpensive, disposable drive that you can throw away after the presentation. Though antivirus software is loaded on the computer, there still exists the possibility your drive can get infected. Many people will be using the computers over the course of the conference and some viruses could be transmitted in spite of these precautions.

Presenters will NOT be able to use their own laptop computers. DO NOT DISCONNECT THE LAPTOP COMPUTER; this may cause the LCD projector to reset and you may need technical support to fix it. This will use up the limited time you have for your presentation. You may practice using the computers and LCD projectors at the MPSA AV "Green Room" booth (see previous page).

- *To begin your presentation, insert your flash drive into the USB port on the NetBook;
- *Open the appropriate software (i.e., to show a PowerPoint presentation, use PowerPoint Reader);
- *Find your file and double click on it to open the file;
- *Keep the flash drive plugged in during your presentation;
- *When the presentation is completed, close all windows;
- *Click on the Safely Remove Hardware icon (flash drive with a green check mark) in the bottom right hand side of the screen;
- *Wait until you are prompted to remove your flash drive, then remove the flash drive.

If you have problems, call PSAV at (312) 917-1706. Let them know you are with the MPSA Conference, the room you are in, the type of problem you are experiencing, and that you need an AV engineer to assist you. For security reasons, NetBook computers and LCD projectors will be removed from all meeting rooms immediately upon conclusion of each day's panels.

Additional A/V services are available, such as establishing internet access in meeting rooms, at your cost and must be arranged in advance. Contact PSAV at (312) 917-1706 for quotes and additional A/V options.

Travel Information

Safety in the City: Please exercise caution in Chicago, just as in any other big city. A few simple precautions include the following: remove your badge outside the conference site; keep all valuables out of sight: don't display expensive jewelry, cameras, bags, and other items that might draw attention; avoid pickpockets (wallets should be kept in front pockets and purses worn across the shoulder); stick to well-lit, well-traveled streets; and always lock your car.

Ground Transportation: Getting around Chicago without a car is easy — use public transportation, taxis, or walk! If you need advice on getting around, ask the hotel concierge.

Shuttle: Airport Express runs buses from O'Hare and Midway airports to the Palmer House. Airport shuttles leave airports every 10 to 15 minutes. Shuttles cost $32.00 one way between O'Hare and downtown, or $27.00 one way between Midway and downtown. Approximate time to O'Hare is 40 minutes and 25 minutes to Midway. For information, schedules, or reservations, call (773) 247-1200 or contact the hotel concierge for hotel departure information. Be sure to state you are a MPSA conference attendee. All major credit cards are accepted.

Bus/Train: Continental Air Transport (CTA) runs service from the Palmer House to O'Hare and Midway airports. Approximate time from downtown is 45 minutes to O'Hare and 30 minutes to Midway. The fare for one ride is $2.25 and $0.25 per transfer. For route, fare, and schedule information call (888) 968-7282. If you plan on using the CTA to get around, Visitor Passes are your best value available for one day ($10.00), three days ($20.00), and seven days ($28.00). These allow unlimited rides on buses and trains. Purchase passes at airports, visitor information centers, Union Station, and other select Chicago attractions or inquire at the hotel for details about this service.

Taxicabs: Taxis from O'Hare typically cost approximately $40.00 to $59.00, and from Midway they cost approximately $25.00. An additional charge of $1.00 is added to the total fare on each trip to or from the airports under the State of Illinois Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority Airport Departure Ordinance. The tax should appear on the meter as an "extra" charge. In Chicago, you pay the amount shown on the taximeter, plus any tolls. The meter should start at $2.25 and then increase $1.80 for every mile or $2.00 for every six minutes of waiting time. There is an extra $1.00 charge for additional passengers over the age of 12 and under the age of 65. There is no extra charge for baggage or credit card use, and tipping is optional. Drivers are not required to carry or to change bills larger than $20.00. Cabs are readily available at the hotel.

Chicago Trolley Company: Chicago's best fully narrated tour stops at all of Chicago's top attractions and offers San Francisco style trolleys or London style double-decker buses. Tours take about two hours. The tour offers unlimited boarding for those who wish to explore the city, with another trolley or bus arriving every 20 to 30 minutes. Some of the stops on the route are the Art Institute, Field Museum, Navy Pier, Water Tower, Hancock Tower, Wrigley Building and River North. Hours of operation are from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm seven days per week. All day tickets are $34.95 for adults, and $17.95 for children ages 3-12. Tickets may be purchased at all boarding locations beginning at 8:45 am. For locations without a ticket booth, board the trolley and purchase a ticket from the driver. Call (888) 881-3284 for routes and departure times.

Chicago CityPass: The CityPass offers tickets to five of Chicago's best attractions and saves you 50% off box office prices if purchased individually. This is not a group tour and is designed to allow independent touring. Session Formats and Participant Instructions

Empire Lecture Series

Each Empire Lecture Series session begins with a keynote presentation, followed by a 15 minute Q&A with the audience.

Panels

Panels provide each author with an opportunity to present an abbreviated version of his or her paper at the specific time in the printed program. Feedback and comments will be provided by the discussant, followed by comments, questions, and discussion including the audience. Having three to five papers assigned to a session allows approximately 5 minutes for the chair to introduce the session, 10 to 15 minutes per author presentation, 20 minutes of feedback, and 20 minutes of discussion with the audience.

The Role of Panel Chair

The chair is responsible for introducing each paper and the authors as well as the discussant(s). The chair is also responsible for managing the time for each presentation, making sure no author exceeds his or her assigned time slot on the program, and ensures that the discussion is polite and productive. The exact time for each presenter is listed in the program.

Chairs are responsible for recommending papers to the MPSA office for awards. You may nominate papers by submitting your nominations (name of author(s), title and paper) on the Awards page at www.MPSAnet.org or by email to mpsainfo@mpsnet.org The MPSA strongly encourages chairs to make nominations as soon as possible while the paper presentations are still fresh in their minds.

The Role of Panel/Poster Discussant

Discussants provide feedback regarding research papers that are presented in a panel or poster session, pointing out both the strengths and areas of improvement. Discussants also may place the research in a broader context and discuss trends and themes.

For poster sessions, the discussants examine each poster to which they are assigned and provide feedback to the author. This is much more casual than serving as a discussant on a panel, where they provide feedback in front of an audience.

Discussants are responsible for recommending papers to the MPSA office for awards. You may nominate papers by submitting your nominations (name of author(s), title and paper) on the Awards page at www.MPSAnet.org or by email to mpsainfo@mpsnet.org The MPSA strongly encourages discussants to make nominations as soon as possible while the paper presentations are still fresh in their minds.

Posters

An attempt is made to organize posters by topic to encourage attendance at the poster presentations. Poster board assignments are listed in the Daily Program Schedule. Poster sessions are held in the exhibit hall located in the Grand and State ballrooms on the 4th floor. Poster presenters should arrive 15 minutes before their session begins and remain throughout the entire poster session to answer questions. Have all presentation materials prepared for quick assembly. Posters should be attached to one side of an 8' x 4' freestanding bulletin board, supplies are provided. Please be sure to remove your poster at the end of the poster session, because another group of posters will be scheduled after yours.

Roundtable Panelists and Chairs

Typically four to eight panelists participate in a roundtable, which includes a chair who introduces the panelists and provides a substantive introduction to the topic. Participants do not prepare papers. They make brief introductory remarks before engaging in ad hoc discussions.

Working Group

A working group is a conference within a conference. A volunteer coordinator for each working group proposes a theme, selects and/or organizes sessions for the group to attend, promotes the working group, and facilitates communication among participants.

Open Discussion

These sessions are similar to "open spaces" sessions at conferences. Unlike a roundtable where the presenters are all experts on the topic and make a structured presentation, with an open discussion, one person selects a topic and the attendees sign up to participate in the discussion that the organizer facilitates.

Empire Lecture Series and NSF Funding Roundtable

Empire Lecture Series: Boycotts, Brawls, and Election Fraud: How Politicians make Democracy Work (for them)

Thursday, April 3 at 2:40 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: Why do so many democracies in the world seem so chaotic? Emily Beaulieu's talk draws on her book Electoral Protest and Democracy in the Developing World to shed new light on these challenges to democracy.

Emily A. Beaulieu, University of Kentucky

Empire Lecture Series: Assessing the Historical Movement of Ideas

Thursday, April 3 at 4:35 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: Ideas, notes Robert Dahl, are often a major independent or explanatory variable, and to neglect them can lead to "naïve reductionism." It is important, then, to assess the process by which ideas are promoted and have come to be accepted or rejected.

John Mueller, Ohio State University and Cato Institute

Empire Lecture Series: Bedrock Differences of Liberals and Conservatives

Friday, April 4 at 12:45 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: Liberals and conservatives are different in many ways besides their political preferences. In this talk, I summarize the burgeoning research on the biological and deep psychological differences across the ideological spectrum.

John R. Hibbing, University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Empire Lecture Series: Climate Change in a Political World

Friday, April 4 at 2:40 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: Mitigating and adapting to increasing climatic pressures is as much a political issue as a technological one. I will demonstrate a puzzle of politics as it influences our collective ability to address the anthropogenic causes of climate change.

Patrick M. Regan, University of Notre Dame

Empire Lecture Series: The Public Value of Social Science

Friday, April 4 at 4:35 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: To answer the question, "What is the public value of social science research and is it so valuable that should Congress should continue to fund it?" I clarify how this work does, or does not, help citizens and policymakers achieve critical goals.

Arthur Lupia, University of Michigan

Empire Lecture Series: Performance Matters: Spotlighting Facts

Saturday, April 5 at 2:40 pm in the Empire on the Lobby Level

Overview: Americans complain about the economy, health reform, and U.S. foreign policy and, yet, each has dramatically improved. How does government performance matter to voters in an age of partisan sorting and elite strategies to bias perceptions?

Lawrence R. Jacobs, University of Minnesota

Roundtable: The Role of Congress in Funding Social Science Research

Saturday, April 5 at 10:25 am in the Red Lacquer on the 4th Floor

Overview: Panelists from the US House of Representatives, the NSF, and political science will discuss the role of Congress in funding social science.

Chair: Arthur Lupia, University of Michigan

Panelists: Daniel Lipinski, U.S. House of Representatives

Rick Wilson, Rice University

Wendy Naus, Council of Social Science Associations

Brian Humes, National Science Foundation

Social Science Funding in Question – Support NSF SBE

The Frontiers in Innovation, Research, Science and Technology Act of 2014 (H.R. 4186), or FIRST Act, was passed by the House Science, Space, and Technology Subcommittee on Research and Technology on March 13. The FIRST Act reauthorizes the National Science Foundation (NSF), but it includes massive cuts for social science research - a 26% cut from the recommended level. The bill also introduced additional rules for grant review that would undermine the already-gold standard merit review. At the time that this program was sent to print, the bill was scheduled to move to the full House Science Committee as soon as the week of March 24th.

The FIRST Act reauthorizes the National Science Foundation (NSF), but there are critical problems with the bill. First, the proposed authorization of appropriations for the Social, Behavioral and Economic (SBE) sciences directorate is over 26 percent ($72 million) below the recommended level, which would decimate programs that have proven their value to the U.S. economy, national security, and the health of our citizens. Second, the bill would place additional burden on NSF regarding its already-gold standard merit review process and require additional, potentially duplicative, public disclosure of research grants. Third, the bill seeks to micromanage the grant application process and limits the number of awards that can be made to principal investigators, thereby undermining the merit review process that successfully determines the very best science worth taxpayer support.

Previous research funded by the SBE Directorate includes the works of Nobel Prize winning researchers - the late Elinor Ostrom of Indiana University as well as Daniel Kahneman of Princeton - that examines individual and group decision making. Researchers at Drexel University, Indiana University, and Arizona State University developed spatial models to help manage the location of sex offenders. Researchers at Washington University in St. Louis investigated emotion recognition using nonverbal cues such as facial expressions, vocal tones and body language that are now used to assist the military understand cross-cultural, nonverbal communication with non-English speaking citizens with whom they interact overseas. These are just a few of the many examples of social and behavioral science funded by NSF that yield results with real world applications to our communities and the nation.

NSF is the largest Federal funder of social and behavioral science and these proposed cuts would cause irreparable damage to the U.S. scientific enterprise—including researchers at colleges and universities who depend on NSF support.

Authors must remove all poster materials promptly at the conclusion of their session.

There are two poster awards given during the MPSA conference: a $250 award for the best paper presented in a poster format and a $250 award for the best undergraduate paper presented in a poster format. Instructions for Submitting Proposals

Proposals are to be submitted online using the 2015 Participation Proposal Form available on our website in August, at <http://www.mpsanet.org>.

Proposals should be submitted directly to the appropriate section heads of the 2015 Program Committee using the online form. Do not send the same proposal to more than two section heads. Submitting a proposal to two section heads does not increase the chance of having the proposal accepted.

If you are offering to serve as a chair or discussant, please indicate your fields of expertise and provide a statement of your interests. Individuals may participate on no more than two panels, roundtables, and/or poster sessions. Participants may give one paper presentation and have one other role (as chair, discussant, co-author). Groups not affiliated with the MPSA that wish to sponsor sessions should contact the MPSA (conf@mpsanet.org) to arrange this.

Papers may be presented in either a panel format or in a poster format.

The 2015 meeting will take place over four days, on a Thursday morning through Sunday afternoon schedule of sessions. By submitting a proposal, individuals agree to be available to participate in sessions during any of the four days of the conference. Requests for specific days or times for participation are not accepted, except for reasons related to religious observance or unusual family circumstances. Though the MPSA does value teaching, approximately 80% of attendees teach and we cannot schedule around anyone's teaching schedule. Special scheduling requests must be submitted to conf@mpsanet.org, no later than November 15, 2014.

The Midwest Political Science Association reserves the right to accept or reject any proposal received from an individual or individuals desiring to participate in the annual meeting.

2014 Awards

The MPSA provides awards for outstanding papers and posters delivered at the annual conference. Nominations are made by conference discussants, chairs, and section heads after the conference. The Association strongly encourages individuals holding these section or session responsibilities to nominate papers from their sessions for consideration.

Chairs and discussants may nominate papers for awards. You may nominate papers by submitting your nominations (name of author(s), title and paper) on the Awards page at www.MPSAnet.org or by email to mpsainfo@mpsnet.org by July 1, 2014. The MPSA strongly encourages discussants to make nominations as soon as possible while the paper presentations are still fresh in their minds. Award committees select the winners. Awards are announced at the MPSA business meeting, held during the Annual Conference, the following year.

MPSA Mentoring Reception for Graduate Students (Prior Registration Required) - MPSA has invited faculty members to volunteer during the MPSA 2014 Mentor Reception to connect with small groups of graduate students to discuss current research and professional aspirations. The American Journal of Political Science,
the official journal of the MPSA
Instructions for Contributors to the AJPS

- The manuscript should address an important research problem or question, display a high level of creativity or innovation in research, contribute in a novel way to a body of knowledge, and (as appropriate) demonstrate superb theoretical development along with state-of-the-art use of appropriate methodological tools.
- The manuscript must communicate its contribution to a general political science audience in an effective and informative manner.
- The manuscript should present its content as efficiently as possible, with no unnecessary material included in the text or exhibits. For example, including a paragraph at the end of the introductory section that lays out the organization of the paper is unnecessary.
- The manuscript must include an abstract of 150 words or fewer. The abstract should either appear on the title page or the page immediately following the title page. In either case, the word count for the manuscript must follow the abstract. The abstract should provide a very concise descriptive summary of the research stream to which the manuscript contributes, the specific research topic it addresses, the research strategy employed for the analysis, the results obtained from the analysis, and the implications of the findings.
- The manuscript should not include a lengthy literature review. Instead, the text should cite only works that are directly relevant to the immediate research topic, in the process demonstrating any gaps in the literature that may have led to the current analysis, and highlighting the current study's contribution to the ongoing line of scholarly work.
- In most cases, manuscripts should not cite unpublished work as support for the current analysis. Exceptions include presentations at major professional conferences and entries in well-known working paper series. Generally, however, work submitted to the AJPS should be based on prior research that has undergone a formal review process within the relevant scholarly community.
- The use of figures to demonstrate an argument or illustrate a finding is strongly encouraged. Authors should make sure that the graphical content of any figures is legible and of high quality. The use of color should be minimized, as it cannot be included in the print version of the AJPS. Color figures are retained in the online version.
- For purposes of review, authors should consider inserting figures and tables into the body of the text, thereby making it easier for referees to refer to the material while reading. Regardless of whether they are inserted in the text or left at the end of the manuscript, tables and figures should be numbered consecutively.
- The use of asterisks or other symbols to represent varying levels of statistical significance is strongly discouraged (though not prohibited). Authors who report that results are "statistically significant" should use the 0.05 level or lower; statistical tests using the 0.10 level are not acceptable for work submitted to the AJPS.
- The use of supporting information for manuscripts is strongly encouraged and will be treated as a substitute for appendices. The material provided in the supporting information will not be considered part of the word count noted below. Supporting information should be aimed at a sophisticated reader with specialized field expertise. For example, formal theories may include proofs; computational models may include computer code; experiments may include details of the protocol; empirical work may include data coding, alternative econometric specifications, and additional tables and figures that elaborate the manuscript's primary point. Supporting information will be sent to referees along with the manuscript. If the manuscript is accepted for publication the supporting information will be posted on the publisher's website with the electronic copy of the article and also on the AJPS website.
- In most cases, the details of robustness tests should also be relegated to the supporting information. The main text of the manuscript should provide a relatively brief summary of the results from the robustness tests and refer interested readers to the supporting information for more complete presentations of the tests themselves, if necessary.
- The length of the manuscript should not exceed 8500 words. The word count for the manuscript must follow the abstract. The word count includes all information from the Introduction through the Conclusion, as well as the content of any figures and tables. It excludes the abstract, list of references, and supporting information. A manuscript that exceeds the 8500 word limit will be returned without review unless the author specifically requests and justifies an exemption, and the Editor grants the request.

- The manuscript should follow the style guidelines from the American Political Science Association's Style Manual for Political Science (revised August, 2006) or The Chicago Manual of Style (16th Edition). The guidelines include, but are not limited to, matters of text style, citations, appendices, notes, references, and figures/tables.
- Further information regarding manuscript style and formatting can be found in the AJPS Style Guide. This relatively informal document has been developed by former and current editors of the Journal of Politics and the American Journal of Political Science. It can be downloaded from the AJPS website, <http://ajps.org>.
- All text, footnotes, and bibliographic references must be doubled-spaced and printed in a standard 12-point type font (material in figures and tables may be single-spaced). Page margins should be a minimum of one inch. All bibliographic references should provide authors' first and last names, not the last name and first initial- e.g., Smith, John, not Smith, J.

Manuscript Submission: A manuscript intended for review by the American Journal of Political Science must be submitted through Editorial Manager using the procedures described below.

- Submission is available on the Journal's website at <http://www.ajps.org>. Only electronic submission is accepted. Other forms of submission will not be accepted.
- If a manuscript has multiple authors, then one author must be designated as the corresponding author. That person will act for the full team of authors as the sole contact for communications with the AJPS Editorial Offices throughout the review process.
- Before starting the submission process, the corresponding author for the manuscript should have available the names and e-mail addresses of all authors, and the text of the manuscript abstract. At this time, the corresponding author should identify a research subfield for the manuscript and also designate several keywords that identify the topics for which the manuscript is relevant. An author submitting a revised manuscript should further have available the original manuscript number (i.e., that used during the initial review by the AJPS).
- An original or revised manuscript must include one (and only one) anonymous file (PDF, Word, or LaTeX format) as described below:
 - The American Journal of Political Science uses a double-blind system to review submitted manuscripts. Therefore, the corresponding author must submit a fully anonymous version of the manuscript.
 - The anonymous submitted file must exclude any author-identifying information, such as title page information on authors' names and affiliations, expressions of appreciation to others for advice or data, statements of where the manuscript may have been presented at a conference, acknowledgments of support for the research, and citations to the author's unpublished work. The file containing the manuscript should be marked "anonymous" in the document summary tab and the file must be printable.
 - If there is supporting information, it also should be contained in the submitted file. Supporting information should appear after the last page of the manuscript itself, and it should be clearly differentiated from the manuscript.
 - An author who submits a revised manuscript must place the memorandum to referees in the dialogue box during the submission process in Editorial Manager.
 - An author may, but is not required to, include comments to the Editor, acknowledgments, and details on where the paper has been presented. This information can be inserted in the "Author Comments" field in Editorial Manager.
- If a manuscript is accepted for publication, it will not be published until the first footnote explicitly states where the data used in the study can be obtained for purposes of replication. The first footnote must also identify any sources that funded the research. In addition, all data and replication materials must be stored in the AJPS Data Archive on Dataverse. Please refer to the Accepted Article Guidelines on the AJPS website (<http://ajps.org>) for instructions pertaining to the AJPS Dataverse Archive. In addition, if supporting information accompanies the article, it must be ready for permanent posting when the final draft is submitted. Manuscripts that do not use data or have supporting information are exempt from these latter requirements.
- A corresponding author may recommend up to three or four individuals who are particularly qualified to review the manuscript. Recommendations cannot include an author's doctoral dissertation supervisor, someone with whom an author has co-authored work in the past 12 months, colleagues in an author's department or comparable employment unit, or anyone with whom an author has a family or other personal relationship. Recommendations are strictly that; none, one, or all of the author-recommended individuals may be selected to review the manuscript. Recommendations of referees must provide a name and a contact e-mail address for each person recommended. Author recommendations must be submitted through the Editorial Manager system.

- Authors may also designate up to three or four individuals that they prefer not to review the manuscript. In such cases, the author must specify why the individuals should be disqualified from serving as referees on the manuscript. These designations will be considered when referees are selected for the manuscript. But, the designations should not be construed as barring the individuals from the review process. In other words, one or more of them may still be selected as referees.

Other Notes: The American Journal of Political Science does not review manuscripts that:

- Do not contain original arguments or analyses
- Are not analytically rigorous, of high quality, and self-contained
- Are unsolicited responses to recently published articles
- Are book reviews or essays on current events
- Are simultaneously under review elsewhere
- Contain material that has already been published elsewhere (without appropriate citation or acknowledgment)
- Fail to comply with the substantive, stylistic, formatting, and anonymity requirements described above

The Editor and editorial staff of the American Journal of Political Science seek to provide constructive and informative manuscript reviews that provide authors with useful information regardless of the ultimate editorial decision. And, we are committed to providing authors with efficient and timely turnaround when processing submitted manuscripts. But, the speed of the process is directly affected by the timeliness of referee responses. Accordingly, it may take several months to complete the review of a manuscript. Note also that all reviews are advisory to the AJPS Editor, who is solely responsible for publication decisions.

American Government

Marc Landy / Sidney Milkis

American Government: Balancing Democracy and Rights, Third Edition

ISBN 9781107650022 · Available May 2014 · $65 · www.cambridge.org/landy

Marc Landy and Sidney Milkis present American politics as a dramatic narrative of conflict and change, adopting an American Political Development approach in order to show how the past, present, and visions of the future interact to shape governing institutions and political forces. This developmental approach provides a richer context for the appreciation and understanding of the whole gamut of attitudes, behaviors, organizational activities and institutional relationships that comprise American political and governmental life. The authors also strongly emphasize the role of ideas: The two key political development principles of path dependency and critical choice are central to explaining how and why the past affects the present and future.

Comparative Politics

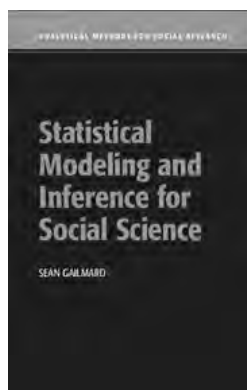

Jeffrey Kopstein / Mark Lichbach / Stephen Hanson

Comparative Politics, Fourth Edition

ISBN 9780521135740 · Available August 2014 · $78 · www.cambridge.org/kopstein4e

Comparative Politics by Kopstein, Lichbach, and Hanson is guided by the question “why are countries ruled and governed so differently?” Comparative Politics underscores the global and historical context of political development and examines the diverse pathways that key countries around the world have taken in their quest to adapt to the competitive pressures of 21st-century globalization. Twelve in-depth country studies—written by leading scholars with expertise ranging across the political economies, ideologies, and histories of societies on every continent capture the main currents in comparative politics—explore how the major analysis concepts of interests, identities, and institutions shape the politics of nations and regions.

Research Methods in Politics

Sean Gailmard

Statistical Modeling and Inference for Social Science

Part of Analytical Methods for Social Research series

ISBN 9781107003149 · Available May 2014 · $80 · www.cambridge.org/gailmard

Statistical Modeling and Inference for Social Science by Sean Gailmard is the affordable alternative for top-quality content narrowly written for analytical methods in the social sciences. Focusing on the connection between statistical procedures and social science theory, Statistical Modeling and Inference for Social Science provides extensive guidance on reading empirical literature for researchers and PhD students. Throughout the text, Gailmard gives attention to developing core statistical theory to statistics as a set of tools to model and assess relationships between variables and explains how social scientists express and test substantive theoretical arguments in these models.

Social Justice and the Indian Rope Trick

By Anthony de Jasay

Edited by Hartmut Kliemt

Anthony de Jasay is arguably one of the most independent thinkers and influential libertarian political philosophers of our time. In this collection of witty and compelling essays, the author challenges what many of today's social and political philosophers widely accept: that social injustice is identified with inequality and social justice with equality. Rather, Jasay argues that justice preempts so-called social justice, so any attempt to adorn equality in the robes of social justice is an illusion, a sleight of hand, "much as the Indian rope in the notorious trick is made to stand up skyward on its own."

The fifteen articles in this collection include both published and unpublished papers written over the years 2008 to 2012. Scholars, students, and general readers will enjoy this collection, which is written with just the right blend of serious scholarship, wit, and plain speaking. In addition, Social Justice and the Indian Rope Trick can be seen as a continuation of Jasay's Political Philosophy, Clearly (Liberty Fund, 2010) and a companion to his book Economic Sense and Nonsense (Liberty Fund, 2014).

Liberal Thought in Argentina, 1837–1940

Edited and with an Introduction by Natalio R. Botana and Ezequiel Gallo

Translated by Ian Barnett

Liberal ideas were very important in Argentina from the time of independence. The Argentine constitution (1853–60), in force for a long time, was based on liberal principles taken from both the North American and the European tradition.

The general structure of the collection is chronological, taking the reader through an analysis of different periods of liberal thought in Argentina: from liberalism as opposed to dictatorial rule, to liberalism as the framework of the National Constitution (1852–60). Importance is given to the development of liberalism in government and opposition (1857–1910) and to the last period (1912–40), the twilight of liberalism.

This volume also includes a new introduction, editorial footnotes, a chronology, and brief biographies of the authors of the original texts.
