Additional Funds

- Harrell Rogers Graduate Student Travel Scholarship. This scholarship started with funding from the Policy Studies Organization (PSO) in 2004 and expanded by the MPSA

Council in 2010. This program provides $500 in travel funding for doctoral-level graduate students who are members of the MPSA to attend the MPSA Conference. The scholarship is named for Harrell Rodgers, who has organized panels at the MPSA conference on behalf of the PSO for many years.

- John Bohte Memorial Graduate Student Travel Scholarship. This scholarship was established to fund travel for graduate students presenting research in the subfield of public policy/public administration. This program provides $500 in travel funding for graduate students. The scholarship is named in honor of John Bohte, who was an active scholar in the field of public policy/public administration and a popular teacher and mentor to undergraduate and graduate students alike.
- The Luis R. Fraga Graduate Student Travel Scholarship. This scholarship seeks to support PhD students from underserved populations to attend the MPSA annual conference.
- The MPSA Status Committee on Racial and Ethnic Minorities Travel Scholarship. This scholarship awards travel funding to a select group of qualifying members of the MPSA to attend and present at the MPSA Annual Conference.
- The MPSA Status Committee on Gender and Sexual Minorities Travel Scholarship. This scholarship awards travel funding to a select group of qualifying members of the MPSA to attend and present the MPSA Annual Conference.
- MPSA Endowment. Contributions to the endowment support the long-term strength of the association.
